GOLDSBORO

HEARD FROM

A Lady Who Lives in Goldsboro Joins in the Chorus of Praise for Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Goldsboro, N. C.—"A physician treated me for many distressing symptoms," writes Mrs. Etta A. Smith, "but gave me no relief.

"I suffered with neuralgia around the heart and was troubled at times with my head. I had pain in my left side, bowels, left thigh, shoulders and arms.

"After taking Cardui, I am now well and can recommend it to other suffering women."

Just such doubtful symptoms, as those from which Mrs. Smith suffered, are the ones for which it will pay you to take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

It is at such times, when there is nothing to show, for certain, the real cause of the trouble, that you need a tonic, to give the body strength to throw off the illness that evidently threatens.

Take Cardui, when you are ill, with the ailments of your sex. Take Cardui as a tonic, to prevent illness, when you feel it coming.

Your druggist keeps it.

BUSHEL OF GOLD, GEMS AND SILVERWARE.

Ocean Cases and an appraiser were engaged yesterday in opening a bushel of gold, gems and silverware collected Sunday at Christ Episcopal Church, Williamsburg, N. Y., the proceeds of which go toward paying off the debt on the rectory. Each article was done up in a pasteboard box, securely wrapped and sealed. $25 did not count, for one of the smallest contained a $20 gold piece.

A sale is to be held at which those who gave up cherished pieces of jewelry will have an opportunity to buy it back again.

Eight members of the vestry, with big baskets, took up the collection at the morning service. The larger pieces were taken directly to the rectory and not given in at the church.

The silverware and gold which cannot be sold will be disposed of at the assay office and melted down. It is confidently expected that more than the required amount has been raised.

AN IMPROMPTU DUOING
Miss Marjorie Bartlett, the attractive daughter of Lieut. Comdr. F. W. Bartlett, U. S. N., and member of the younger social set at the naval academy, at Annapolis, was treated to an impromptu dueling, and suffered a narrow escape from drowning when she accepted the invitation of Lieut. F. W. Stirling, U. S. N., to try his new automobile yesterday afternoon.

The two passed the basin road, which skirts the boat lagoon at the academy. On the narrowest part of this roadway, the steering gear of the car, which Miss Bartlett was driving, became jammed and the automobile dashed over the steep sea wall and into about 15 feet of water.

Although tucked away under the steering post, with her skirts tangled with its many rods, Miss Bartlett, as the car shot off into space before its downward plunge managed to get clear and jumped out into the cold waters of the Severn. Lieut. Stirling jumped to the other side, and also got clear.

It took a diver and several naval tenders to bring her derrick to get the car back to land.
